

THE BROMLEY 'BASH' 19th December 2010

On the previous evening, Sainsbury's had set up their 'Perfect Xmas Party' event in an adjacent road. You may have read about it in The Liverpool Echo or your local paper, but here are a few photos I took.

Sainsbury's Xmas Party Event

It snowed heavily that night but they still used their 'snow machines' to great effect.

So, Party Day: the temperature was low and the snow led to a cancellation of our Eureka meet, but eventually 22 guests arrived. 1 on a bike, 5 walked, the rest used their cars. Who cares?

Graham –Lone cyclist!

Jill and the 'eats'

Past Presidents, Ann and Mike with Pam

They were all made very welcome and were soon partaking of Mulled wine, home made soup and other 'eats'.

We were pleased to see a wide age range, 13 to 80 and also Presidents - Past & Present.

The raffle prizes were numerous, mostly provided by our guests and our helpers (none cyclists!)

who managed the unusually easy job of parting cyclists from their money to buy tickets.

Counting the cash

Following the draw, everyone had at least 1 prize, some several.

Notably, Mike went home with a smile on his face, having won a bottle of 'Gentleman's Rubbing Oil', and Janet literally walked off with the Star Prize: A curry meal of your choice, made and delivered to your home, by our son-in-law, Dave.

The raffle money this year will be donated to Clatterbridge Cancer Research.

Thank you all for coming. You will be pleased to know that there was not a drop of the 5 bottles of Mulled wine left for the 'washer up' to drink!

Happy New Year to all my readers!!!
