

The Lakes Café, Dodleston – 13th January 2013

Yes, it should have been Barbara, then it should have been Jill, but finally, due to the icy conditions in Lower Heswall, it was a 'self-lead' by Brian.

The Stalwarts!

Some decided at the Eureka, that the road conditions were too risky, and returned home, or, like us, went by car, but eleven hardy types, eventually rode to the Cheshire Lakes café for lunch.

At the Cafe

The 'Speciality of the house' is but as they only had four Kipper be rationed!

Kippers & poached eggs

Kippers with poached egg, portions left, they had to

Brian was happy to look on at Sylvia's ration whilst enjoying his fish & chips, but Roy settled for a very filling Egg and Bacon bap.

The original ride leaders discussed their routes home by car, missing out the Saltney Bridge, but eventually the 'self-help' group wrapped themselves up warm, and left for home on their machines.

I am advised that they got back to the Eureka before the rain and sleet caught up with them.

This week we have even more new technology for you to see.

No, I did not forget my camera: I decided to test the quality of my new 'hand-me-down' phone/camera. Well, yes it is handy to have it, but if I can remember it, I will stick to my usual camera in future.
