

Hildegard's Café Holt - March 3rd 2013

Roy's ride to Hildegard's attracted 12 riders and was enjoyed in almost Spring-like weather.

He chose a circuitous route involving climbing the heights of Shordley, Goly, Marford and Hoseley, before the long descent to Holt

The lunch in Hildegard's 'little back room' proved to be the usual gastronomic delight, but, all too soon, the plates were polished clean and we were off again to cross the River Dee.

Getting ready for home!

The ride home was 'brisk', but we all arrived back at The Eureka in good order.

Thank you Roy (And, of course, Hildegard!)
