

Okells Garden Centre Café - 22nd November 2017

What a difference a week makes. After a record attendance of forty-two the week before, this week saw just six of us assemble at the Eureka. This was no doubt due to the poor weather forecast, although in fact the weather turned out to be relatively kind - a couple of very light and short showers were all we saw of the rain; the wind was a little gusty, but nothing to worry us unduly. The small group made it much easier to stay together so we arrived at Okells' in good time after an uneventful ride apart from passing numerous farmers cutting hedges and sustaining one puncture. We met George and Ada there and after lunch made our way home with people gradually peeling off, leaving just three to return to the Eureka at 2:45pm.
