Clwb Rygbi Llanymddyfri
Llandovery Rugby Club
21/7/2016 – 26/7/2016

Croeso Welcome

CTC Cymru is pleased to announce that the 2016 Welsh Festival of Cycling is returning to Llandovery.

The Festival provides an opportunity for cyclists of all descriptions to experience the beauty of rural Carmarthenshire with rides which have been geared to a range of abilities and interests.

Llandovery lies on the edge of the Brecon Beacons National Park with the Black Mountains, the Eppynt Range and the Cambrian Mountains within cycling distance. It nestles within these hills, but not all of the rides climb steep hills.

The Festival is based at Llandovery Rugby Club which has camping available for solo & large tents and also space for caravans and motor homes. (There are some electric hook-ups available).

What's On

For 2016 the Festival will run over 4 full days, with the first rides starting on the Friday morning (registration from 4pm Thursday afternoon). Five nights camping is available at the Rugby Club from Thursday 21st July until the morning of Tuesday 26th.

Participants can pick up their routes sheets when they register their arrival at the event. There will be a range of routes available, from short family rides to longer more arduous routes as well as some off road routes. There will be ride leaders for some of the rides. The rides will give an opportunity to explore the lovely surrounding hills and will mainly be on quiet lanes.

There will also be several events which count towards the Tourist Competition.
